ARGGER VENUS

Venus chain link curtain, also known as chain fly screen, adopts double hook design and is made of anodized aluminum. It features lightweight, durable, easy to clean, maintain and install and never fading. It is widely used for curtain and window & door decoration and its unique double hook design can prevent insects from entering without affecting its visibility. It can also be painted with pictures to create a visually striking effect.

Bring unique appearance and amazing decoration effects.
